2022-2023 Learning Loss Teacher

Application deadline is 2:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 9, 2022.

The Union City Area School District is seeking applications for a one-year position for a 2022-2023 Learning Loss Teacher who will work with small groups of students to deliver individualized instruction to address critical learning gaps in Mathematics and English/Language Arts. The preferred candidate will work collaboratively with other educators to engage students in meaningful, targeted instruction to address needs. Eligible applicants will hold a valid and active Pennsylvania Instructional Certificate(s).

Primary Responsibilities and Essential Functions:

The following duties are representative of performance expectations.

- Plan and implement sequential learning experiences based on student data in the content area, using various instructional strategies consistent with the district's instructional curriculum goals and school-level objectives.
- Create a research-based learning environment appropriate to the students' maturity and interests.
- Design individual learning plans based on assessment data.
- Employ a variety of methods for students to demonstrate learning and academic growth.
- Collaborate with other teachers. Share knowledge and resources that enhance the educational process.
- Collaborate with parents and link them to various resources and recommended services.
- Respect personal privacy. Maintain the confidentiality of privileged information.
- Demonstrate professionalism and maintain a positive work attitude.
- Skillfully manage individual, group, and organizational interaction.
- Communicate effectively using verbal, nonverbal, and writing skills.
- Organize tasks and manage time effectively.

To Apply:

Please submit a letter of interest, a resume, the PA Standard Application, a copy of a PA Teaching Certificate, college transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to:

Stacey Dell, Director of Curriculum and Special Programs, 107 Concord Street, Union City, PA 16438
